1. About Maiv Limited

Maiv Limited is a Company incorporated and registered under the laws of Seychelles with Company number 8425341-1. The Company is licensed and regulated as a securities dealer by the Financial Services Authority under license number SD044.

2. Applicable Regulatory Framework and Purpose of this policy

The formulation and adoption of this Policy is required under section 18(5)(a)(vi) of the Financial Consumer Protection Act of 2022, according to which the Company shall, before a purchase is made, provide the financial consumer in writing with a summary of the Company's privacy policy. The FCPA 2022 came into force with the aim of strengthening consumer protection and confidence when accessing financial services and products in Seychelles.

The policy's purpose is to provide a summary of the policies adopted in terms of disclosure of any consumer information received from consumers as part of any contract arrangement that a consumer intends to enter into or enters into with the Company.

The Company is responsible for the protection of privacy and the safeguarding of clients' personal and financial information. By opening a trading account with the Company, the client hereby gives its consent to such collection, processing, storage and use of personal information as explained below.

3. Collection of Personal Data

During the account opening process for a demo or a trading account, the client is requested to provide the Company with some personal information. The provision of the information submitted by the Client will enable the Company to evaluate the application pursuant to the applicable laws and regulations governing the provision of the services. The same information will also be used by the Company to contact the client regarding the offered services.

For further information on the non-public or sensitive data collected by the Company please refer to Section 3, 4 and 7 of the Company's Confidentiality Policy.

4. Use of Personal Data

The Company collects and processes personal data which are required for the evaluation, establishment and maintenance of the contractual relationship between the Company and the Client. In some cases, the Company may also process the client's personal data to pursue its legitimate interests or those of third parties, provided that the Clients' interests and fundamental rights are not overridden by those of the Company or the third party.

In view of the above, the Company may use client's personal information for one or more of the following purposes:

- to confirm/verify the identity of a consumer
- to process transactions
- trading account management
- for internal business as well as record keeping purposes - to analyse statistical data
- to identify, assess, mitigate, prevent and investigate fraudulent activity of any kind that is forbidden by the relevant legislation
- to defend possible legal claims and/or comply with court orders, judicial processes and or any other requirements of a competent authority

The Company also needs to comply with the Anti-Money Laundering regulations therefore there are documents that must be kept to be able for the Company to demonstrate to the authorities that have acted in accordance with the legislation.

If there is no lawful basis for the usage of client's personal data as indicated above, the client's consent will be required.

For further information on the purpose for which non-public consumer data is collected and used by the Company please refer to Section 5 of the Company's Confidentiality Policy.

5. Sharing and transfer of Personal Information

The Company may share client information with business partners and suppliers with whom it may have outsourced certain of the Company's business functions or cooperating with. In order to provide services to the client the Company may be required to transfer client's personal information to parties located outside of Seychelles i.e. in the European Economic Area or in countries which may not have an equivalent level of data protection laws as in the Seychelles. Where this is the case the Company will take reasonable steps to ensure the privacy of the client's information. By submitting personal information, the client agrees to the aforesaid transfer, storage and processing of the client's information.

The Company may also share information with affiliates or any other company in the same group of the Company in the event such information is reasonably required in order to provide the products or services to its clients. The Company may share information with partners, affiliates and associates in order to offer additional similar products and services that meet clients' needs and which are delivered in a manner that is useful and relevant only where clients have authorized the Company to do so. In cases where clients have been introduced by a third party such as a Business Introducer, such Business Introducer may have access to clients' information. Hence, clients hereby consent to the sharing of information with such Business Introducers.

All third parties with which the Company shares personal information are required to protect such personal information in accordance with all relevant legislation and in a manner similar to the way the Company protects the same. The Company will not share personal information with third parties which it considers will not provide its clients the required level of protection.

The Disclosure of consumer data should be in line with Section 9 of the Confidentiality policy of the Company. The client that has established a business relationship with the Company voluntarily consents to the disclosure of their non-public consumer data electronically in the form of a general agreement through the acceptance of the client services agreement at the stage of creating their account.

6. Cookies

The Company uses cookies to gather information about the client's access to the Company's website <https://rewalt.com/> and other services the Company provides to the client.

The Company may share web site usage statistics with reputable advertising companies and with its affiliated companies. It is noted that the information collected by such companies is not personally identifiable. To administer and improve the services offered by the Company's website, the Company may use third parties to track and analyse usage and statistical volume information. The third party may use cookies to track behaviour and may set cookies on behalf of the Company. These cookies do not contain any personally identifiable information.

Most internet browsers are set up to accept cookies. If the client does not wish to receive cookies, he/she may be able to change the settings of the browser to refuse cookies or have the choice whether to accept a cookie or not. However, it is strongly recommended that the client allows cookies on the Company's website to ensure he/she has the best possible experience. Turning off cookies may result in reduced performance of the website and trading platform and may also impair the quality of the services that the Company provides in relation to the client's trading account.

7. Amendments to Policy

The Company reserves the right to make changes to this Privacy Policy from time to time for any reason and the client will be notified of such changes by posting an updated version of this Privacy Policy on the website. The client is responsible for regularly reviewing this Privacy Policy and the use of this website after any such changes are published, shall constitute an agreement to such changes.

8. Legal Disclaimer

The Company will not be liable for misuse or loss of personal information resulting from cookies on the Company's site(s) that the Company does not have access to or control over. The Company will not be liable for unlawful or unauthorized use of client's personal information due to misuse or misplacement of any passwords, negligent or malicious.
